Re: United States v. Silva, 21 Cr. 412

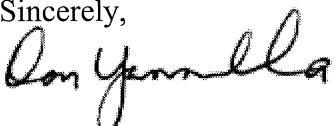

Hon. Jed S. Rakoff:

I am counsel for Mike Silva, who is serving a sentence that includes living at a halfway house in the Bronx for a period of time. Mr. Silva requests that he be permitted to leave his halfway house at 6 AM on Sundays instead of at 7 AM. The reason is that leaving the Bronx halfway house at 7 AM does not give him enough time to arrive at work in Brooklyn at 8 AM.

Mr. Silva also requests that the Probation Department be authorized and ordered to return his passport to him.

AUSA Kaylan Lasky informs me that she has no objection to these two applications.

SO ORDERED
